Your duty of disclosure

It is important that You understand Your duty of disclosure.

What You Must Tell Us and Why: You must answer Our questions truthfully and completely and tell Us anything known to You and anything that a reasonable person in the circumstances could be expected to know, which is relevant to Our decision to insure You and the terms on which You are insured. We will use and rely upon this information in deciding whether to insure You and anyone else to be insured under the Policy, and if so, on what terms.

What You Do Not Need to Tell Us and Why: You do not need to tell Us anything that diminishes the risk to be insured by Us, that is of common knowledge, that We would know in the ordinary course of business or matters in respect of which disclosure has been waived by Us.

Who Needs to Tell Us: You must answer Our questions for You and anyone else whom You want to be covered by the Policy. Your answers will affect the Cover We provide to You and anyone else covered by Your Policy.

If You Do Not Tell Us: If You do not answer Our questions truthfully and completely, or if You withhold relevant information from Us, We may be entitled to reduce or refuse to pay a claim, or cancel Your Policy. If You answer Our questions fraudulently, We may be entitled to either refuse to pay a claim or treat Your Policy as if it never existed. If You do not answer Our questions truthfully and completely, or if You withhold relevant information from Us, in respect of Your Life Cover, and the insurer was entitled to avoid Your Policy under law the insurer may elect not to avoid but reduce the Cover amount that You have been insured for in accordance with a formula that takes into account the premium that would have been payable if You had disclosed all relevant information, or vary the Policy to place the insurer in a position it would have been in if the duty of disclosure had been complied with.

When Your Duty of Disclosure Applies: Your duty of disclosure applies before You enter into an insurance policy with Us up to when We issue the Policy and before You renew, extend, vary or reinstate an insurance policy.

Ongoing disclosure: changes to Your details or circumstances

You must inform Us immediately in writing if:

- You change Your name or address;
- Your employment type or terms change in any way;
- Your Loan Contract ends earlier than the end of the Period of Cover; or

- The Cover Option You have chosen;
- The amount You have borrowed under Your Loan Contract;
- The duration of Your Loan Contract; and
- The number of Insureds covered under Your Policy.

Included in the premium for Your Policy is the commission payable by Us to the representative who assisted with arranging Your Policy. The amount of commission We pay to representatives is up to 20% of the premium, excluding government taxes. More information on commission payments and the benefits received by representatives is available from the Financial Services Guide provided to You in relation to this Policy or by contacting Us.

Payment of premium

You will only be charged a premium once on commencement of Cover.

Government duties

We reserve the right to pass onto You any Government duties, taxes or charges that are or become payable by Us or You in respect of Your Policy.

Cooling off period

You have a cooling off period which is the right to cancel Your Policy within 21 days of the commencement of the Period of Cover, unless You have made a claim during the cooling off period.

If You wish to cancel Your Policy during the cooling off period, You must notify Us in writing and We will refund the premium in full and Your Policy will be terminated.

Taxation information

General insurance premiums are subject to Goods and Services Tax (GST) imposed by the Commonwealth Government. In addition, State Governments impose stamp duty on premiums at varying rates. These taxes and duties will be shown on Your Policy Schedule. GST will also affect any claim You make under the Policy. Please read the details under the heading HOW TO MAKE A CLAIM.

The income tax treatment of premiums paid by You under the Policy and any claims payments received by You will depend on Your personal circumstances. - The Loan Contract is paid out or re-financed with a financier who is not the Financier;
- The payment of a benefit under Life Cover or Terminal Illness Cover is made under this Policy;

We will refund the unexpired portion of the premium in accordance with the formula specified in the National Consumer Credit Protection Regulations 2010 (Cth).

If You have financed the premium for this Policy, We will require the written approval of the Financier before cancelling the Policy. Any refund of premiums will be made to the Financier.

Cancellation by Us
